Surriogs are very frequent just now and increasing. Perhaps it might be well to adopt the German method. As few years ago when the suicide maniety was strong it was enacted that the body of a suicide should be treated like that of a murderer and hanged and then be handed over to medical schools for dissection. This was a stopper to a very appreciable extent.

Thinry and forty years ago no Amer-can actor was more popular or had here influence with the masses than more influence with the missaes than the late James B. Murdoch. He added to the constituency of the theaters the wider constituency of the platform, and during the war no man used rare talent to better effect than did Mr. Murdoch in his readings for the benefit of sick and wounded sabiliers. of sick and wounded soldiers.

THE DIAMOND EXHIBIT

The Actual Work of Securing the Proctom Stones by the Debuces Process in Opera-tion at the World's Fair.

WORLD'S FAIR GROUNDS, CHICAGO une 6. The diamond exhibit from South Africa was operated yesterday morning. Precisely at 10 o'clock Lud-wig Weiner, commissioner for the Cape of Good Hope, gave the signal and the machinery used in separating the pelbles from the diamonderiferous soil was set in motion. A great crowd throught the glass house in the main aisle of mines and mining and watched at Kimberly, South Africa. Many hard lumps of blue clay, of which five tons had been transported here from Africa, were dumped into the great washed away in a the gent babble only and publics were thrown upon a long, zine-topped table. Then Chief Skiff. of Mines and Mining, took the sorting knife in hand and went through the earth eagerly. Soon five beautiful, pure white gens were taken out, and the first one, a -biarat stone, was pre-sented to Chief Skiff by Mr. Weiner in a neat speech. Skiff responded thanking the commissioner for the com, and me of the most complete and instrutive in his department. The gem was then handed to the finisher, who will have it mounted in a few days. The exhibit will show its working powers four hours daily, equally divided be-tween morning and afternoon, but will be closed at night and on Sundays.

The Revolution at an End and the Lead cre in Exile. NEW ORLEANS, June 6.- The Brenkwater arrived at 10 o'clock last night from Honduras, and brings news that the revolution is at an end and everything is quiet. All the rebel leaders with one exception have fled into Nicaragua and San Salvador. There is much satisfaction along the coast and business is resuming stage. Gen. Vasquez, the minister of war, is still acting president, and the greatest mystery surrounds. President-General Leiva, who has not been heard from since he abandoned the reins of government in the midst of the revolt and fled to Peurto Cortez.

Panicky Times on the Chicago Board of Chicago, June 6.—The uneasy feeling in the financial world invaded the board of trade yesterday and caused a temporary panic among the specula-tors in grains and provisions. Prices tumbled headlong, and the bears could not trade fast enough to keep up with the falling market. July wheat sold down to 65%, a drop of nearly 3 cents. and 1% cents lower per bushel than wheat has sold in many a year previous to the present. Provisions shared in the general demoralization, pork showing a decline of $1.20 at the
